No Evidence Against Negro.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, N. C., March 3.—Jude Bailey, colored, arrested last week for complicity in the arson and murder at Barber Junction on Tuesday night, when Preston Lyles lost his life and his body was burned in a store building, was liberated in Salisbury today for lack of evidence. The officers are without a clue to the guilty party.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Warrenton, Va., March 3.—Lock Spring farm, one of the best known estates in this section of Virginia, a few miles from Warrenton and owned and occupied by Mrs. Juliette C. Ashton, wife of Rev. William E. Ashton, was totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin at an early hour this morning. The handsome dwelling, furnished extensively with massive Colonial furniture, with its contents was a total loss, as well as the barn and several outhouses. The stock from the main barn was saved.

A high wind made saving any part of the buildings impossible. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Mrs. Ashton was ill at home. Her condition is serious at this time.

GIRL BURNED TO DEATH.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Home of Jabez Gravely, near Martinsville, destroyed by fire.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 3.—The home of Jabez Gravely, near Mountain Valley, this county, was totally destroyed by fire between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. Mrs. Gravely's ten-year-old granddaughter, a daughter of B. T. Gravely, who was sleeping on the upper floor, was cut off by the flames and burned to death before she could be reached. The other members of the family, all of whom also had retired for the night when aroused, barely had time to save their lives.

The origin of the fire is not known.

Men From Blood Poison.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Staunton, Va., March 3.—Dr. Brown Kunkle, of Staunton, a leading citizen of the county, who, about a week ago, skinned one of his sons on the step of a street car in this city, last night at the University Hospital from blood poison which came from the wound, which was at first disregarded. He was a bachelor, fifty-three years old and a magistrate.

Seriously Injured.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Staunton, Va., March 3.—Harman T. Rosen, of Middlebrook, when starting a gasoline engine at his mill at Middlebrook this afternoon, was caught in the wheel and had an arm, collar bone and leg broken, and he was badly bruised all over and shocked. He was alone at the time, and it is not known how the accident occurred. Surgeons did what they could for him, but it is too soon to say what will be the result.

WOMEN THREATEN POLITICAL WRATH ON MEN IN POWER

The experience necessary to cope with women's political wrath against the amendment.

During the debate in the Senate, Senator Clapp declared that all the sinister influences of the country were lined up against woman suffrage. He said he regretted that women had an opposing suffrage, allowed themselves to be used as a mask for these evil influences.

Senator Bryan, of Florida, made the first extended speech against the amendment. He contended first of all, that the States should be allowed to deal with the question, saying that California had no more right to say whether the negro women of Florida should vote than Florida had to say that the Japanese should vote in California.

BUILDING PERMITS
Administrative Board Beginning Improvements Where Most Needed.

City Engineer Bolling was instructed by the Administrative Board yesterday to furnish an estimate of the cost of smooth paving Twelfth Street, between Everett and Stockton, with the cost of the smooth paving Twelfth Street, from Portland to Twelfth Streets, South Richmond.

The board is proceeding with its street improvement work as rapidly as possible and is first undertaking the improvement in sections where it is most needed.

Insure City Against Damage.
The Administrative Board yesterday renewed the contract with Edward Cowardin and Charles Johnson for the privilege of operating pleasure boats on the lake in William Ford Park, and offered them another contract provided they furnish a liability insurance policy of $10,000 to guard the city against possible damage. This action was taken on the advice of the City Attorney. The contract was for five months, beginning on May 1.

Seek Negro for Shooting.
The police last night were seeking James Reed, colored, who yesterday afternoon shot and seriously wounded Joseph Green, also colored, following a quarrel at First and Curtis Streets. Reed made good his escape after the shooting, although Bicycle Policeman Thurman, who was attracted by the pistol shot, was quickly on the scene. Green was rendered emergency treatment by Dr. M. J. Boyle, Jr., ambulance surgeon, and removed to the City Hospital. He refused to be operated upon and left the hospital.

NO INTENTION TO SWINDLE WOMAN

Whiteman Says He Can Explain Transaction to Satisfaction of All Concerned.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 3.—Alonzo J. Whiteman, at one time a member of the Minnesota Legislature, it is stated, but more recently an inmate of the Auburn, N. Y. Prison, who was arrested here to-day charged specifically with having swindled Mrs. Sarah Conner, of Zion City, Ill., of $2,500, left for Illinois to-night in the custody of A. A. Walker, chief of police of Zion City.

Whiteman, expressing confidence that he can explain the transaction which brought about his arrest to the satisfaction of all concerned, waived extradition and asked that he be returned to Illinois immediately. He declares that Congress gave him a draft for the amount, which he requested him to invest for her, and denies that it was his intention to swindle the woman.

A man arrested with Whiteman, who gave his name as Edward R. Gibbs, but who is suspected of being Jackson DeForest, said to be wanted for the alleged swindling of the Omega National Bank, Owego, N. Y., by means of a fraudulent draft, is being held pending positive identification. The man protests his innocence.

According to detectives who found Whiteman at a hotel here, where he was known as M. J. Donlan, he is known in different parts of the United States under a dozen or more aliases. These names, detectives declare, include A. E. Deland, John F. Thomas, George E. Prentice, E. M. Stewart, John L. Whiting, J. B. Bennett, Fred Henry Cooper, Carl Goodwin Burdick, H. B. Carson, John D. Prentice, John D. Wilson and J. H. Williams.

POOLROOM MEN SENTENCED TO JAIL
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., March 3.—Herbert Tisdale and R. A. Mylett, accused of operating a poolroom, where bets on horse races were made, were fined $250 each and sentenced to thirty days in jail to-day by Police Justice Barron.

The case grew out of the loss of a diamond ring, which Miss Gladys Reed claimed was her property. She accused Mylett of having made away with the ring. The latter declared he pawned the ring to get money to bet on the horses. When the woman had him arrested he "squealed" and the police, who professed to know nothing of the existence of the poolroom, swore out warrants for Tisdale, Mylett and Roland Goode. The latter was dismissed.

Irvine declared from forty to a hundred people congregated in the poolroom every day, but the police say they knew nothing of it. Irvine is said to have wealthy parents in Washington, Tisdale and Mylett appealed to the Corporation Court.
